

DO YOU SPEAK NEW MEXICAN?

Tues April 17

2-6pm 4 Ethics CE's

Tues Oct 16

2-6pm 4 Ethics CE's

ETHICS IN MASSAGE: DO YOU SPEAK "NEW MEXICAN"? Body language. Eye contact. Gestures. Explanations. Silences. In NewMexico, our diverse cultural groups may have very different viewpoints about what constitutes polite behavior, and clear communication. This workshop will compare and contrast Native American, Hispanic, andAnglo communication and cultural features that are common to ourregion. Discussion and activities will help attendees develop effectiveconversational skills, signage, forms, learning tools, and treatmentspaces that serve the needs of diverse population groups in NewMexico. If you are a massage therapist or instructor, this workshop willhelp you to more effectively interact with local and regional clients, andstudents.

About the instructor: Myra Reed, BA, MA, LMT, is an educator with 20years of experience, working in public schools, adult basic education,and higher education. She has provided numerous workshops in multicultural education, and meeting the special needs of non-traditionalstudents. Myra is Native American, and has worked with adult studentsand teachers from various tribes across the United States.
